W. E. King, Agent.

When you go to buy your winter boots don't fail to call at the celebrated Stark Brand. You can see it through and through by calling at Anderson's Bazaar.

A wedding party, headed by Capt. R. E. Triplett, of Ovenshown, started for the line of the Ovenshown and Fell of Hough R. R. the first of the week and will take notes of interest to our state. An engineer and corps of assistants will be put on the line to survey it about the first of November. Long may the good work go on.

PERSONAL.

A large tobacco barn belonging to C. M. Griffin, of Halloway, Ky., and containing 150,000 pounds of unmanufactured tobacco, burned last Wednesday afternoon.

If you don't believe that the very best and best of food can be had in Hartford, just call on J. H. James, next door to Klein Bros. and be convinced.

J. W. Ford is having a very neat cottage erected on Union street.

Mr. Ford, we cannot see why many others don't like it, for such an investment most certainly pays.

H. A. Ford, of W. J. Ford's efficient driver, having three months over the drug store repossessed and furnished preparatory to moving into them. They will be sold most advantageously.

The ending season is now over, and those who left want to be carried, are notified that the work is all done, and we would ask that they come and get their suits at their earliest convenience.

Rept. J. H. PETERS & Co.

Re-v. M. J. Ferguson conducted general exercises at the College Monday morning. His lecture, moral and manners contained some sound advice and was an epitome of good sense.

Persons in need of the shirts should call to examine the pure linen line, re-finished front and back, with patent stay around arm holes and neck, at fifty cents at Anderson's Bazaar.

David S. Rhoads, of Louisville, county and Miss Lila F. Mulvey, of near Hartford, are to be married on the second of November. Miss Lila is a sister of County Superintendent L. Mulvey.

One of our best farmers yesterday remarked to a reporter that in nine cases out of ten (Gautier's) Chicken Chicks have all died that died this week. It is warranted to cure. Send for your druggist.

Do you want to buy a first-class stock farm of 100 acres with good buildings and well-kept stock, for sale reasonable, and in a leading neighborhood? If so, call at the Hartford office.

Mr. Sam. Nixon began on the 22nd of August, and on the 20th of October, landed over 100,000 lbs. of live turkeys ready to run the live turkey in Hartford & W. E. King, Ky. Who sent him for live turkeys?
